NOTICE

Shootings at Pulse Nightclub, Orlando, FL

At this time, the Office of Foreign Missions (OFM) is aware of two countries whose nationals were among the confirmed victims of the shootings at the Pulse Nightclub in Orlando on June 12. Both countries have directly received information concerning this matter through their consular posts in Florida.

OFM's Miami Regional Office is continuing to work with the Orlando Crisis Center, the Medical Examiner, the two primary hospitals treating the injured people, and other agencies in the aftermath of this tragedy. Any new information obtained by OFM involving foreign nationals will be conveyed directly to the impacted countries' embassy or consular post. The latest list of confirmed casualties is available at www.cityoforlando.net.

During this time of crisis, the Department of State will contact only foreign missions if it has confirmed information about a foreign national impacted by this event.

If a foreign mission has reason to believe one of its citizens may have been directly impacted by this event, the Department encourages them to call the city's Emergency Hotline phone number at (407) 246-4357.
